BABCOCK BACKING

APPOINTMENT IS SURPRISE AT CAPITOL

OLSON SAYS HE IS FULFILLING
PROMISE TO SELECT ASSIST-
ANTS OF ABILITY

DISREGARDED SUPPORTERS OF
THREE OTHER PROMIN-
INENT MEN

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—J. N. Peyton, Duluth banker, today was named by Gov. Floyd B. Olson to succeed A. J. Veigel as state banking commissioner.

Peyton, whose appointment came as a surprise at the state capital, will take office Monday. In announcing Peyton's appointment, Olson said he was carrying out a campaign promise to select assistants on the basis of qualifications rather than their political affiliations.

The governor was said to have disregarded supporters of three other prominent men in selecting Peyton, who he said "possesses unusual qualifications and is entirely devoid of political connections." Friends of F. G. Jinxe, a Minneapolis banker, are said to have bombarded the governor with letters and telegrams urging his appointment.

Peyton is the second "dark horse" to be appointed to Olson's big three cabinet. The first was Edward Pearllove, who succeeds Henry Rines as state comptroller. The governor is expected to announce tomorrow that George Wallace of Minneapolis has been named budget commissioner of the big three, succeeding A. J. Peterson.

The new banking commissioner graduated from Yale University in 1908. He obtained his early education in Duluth schools. For 22 years, Peyton has been in the banking business in Duluth. He is 45 years old, married and the father of two children.

H. H. Flowers, another state official whose removal Olson obtained, has resigned effective Saturday as secretary of the rural credits bureau.

Flowers' offer of gratis services during an investigation of the bureau has been refused. He has been given to understand that C. F. Gaarenstroom shall be unhampered in his investigation of the bureau.

The executive told Flowers that his name "would be considered among others" for appointment to the secretaryship after completion of the inquiry. The present secretary previously had offered to help Gaarenstroom in the study of books and records if assured of reappointment after the investigation.

The senate today approved the first two of Governor Olson's appointments. William D. Stewart as state game and fish commissioner and Michael McConville as municipal judge of North Mankato.

Montgomery Ward Show

Profit for Year of 1930

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Montgomery Ward & Company have made a most commendable report of business for the past year, showing a profit for 1930. The net earnings for the last quarter of 1930 of $3,417,202 was sufficient to wipe out a deficit for each of the preceding three-quarters of the year and leave a net profit of $568,211.

The figures provide an interesting contrast between the current depression which the firm believes is now ended and the depression of 1920-21. The company's balance sheet at the end of the 1920-1921 depression showed a net loss of $7,855,278 as compared with this year's profit.

Notorious Anarchist and Gunman is Sentenced to Death

Buenos Aires, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—The notorious anarchist and gunman, Severino Degiovanni, was sentenced today to death before a firing squad.

Deviovanni, who was captured last night in a running gun fight with police as they renewed a drive against outlaw bands which have terrorized Buenos Aires recently, was condemned to execution at dawn tomorrow under powers of martial law which have been effective since the revolution.

Canadian Prime Minister and Party Guests of Hoover

Washington, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Prime Minister Richard L. Bennett of Canada, the Canadian charge d'affaires, Hume Wrong, and Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson will be guests of President Hoover at dinner at the White House tonight.

They will discuss informally at the dinner, according to word at the White House, matters now pending between Canada and the United States.

MANNERS AND METHODS' CAMPUS LOVE DISCUSSED

Minneapolis, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Manners and methods of campus love at the University of Minnesota will be determined Saturday night at the "assignment dance" of the first department of journalism Pi-Phi.

When the couples arrive for the affair they will be presented with numbers and a question on the tastes of co-eds in love and suitors. When the feature dance is held, the men will have to find the girl who holds the number matching his and then ask her the question.

Among the questions which will be answered are:

"Do you object if a boy does not smoke when he is with you?"

"What do you consider necking privileges?"

"Do you mind if your boy friend passes out?"

"Do you insist on petting on the first night you date a new man?"

LITTLE FALLS WELCOMING GOV. OLSON AND PARTY

WILL MAKE INSPECTION TOUR
OF PROPOSED LINDBERGH
STATE PARK

TO VIEW CAMP RIPLEY, NEW NATIONAL GUARD EN-CAMPMENT

Little Falls, Minn., Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Citizens of Little Falls turned out today to welcome a delegation of state officials, including Gov. Floyd B. Olson, who planned to make an inspection tour of Charles A. Lindbergh's former home, which would be made into a state park under bills pending in the legislature.

The party of officials, conducted by Adjutant General R. A. Walsh, was expected to arrive at 3:45 P. M. on a Northern Pacific special train. They will be taken on a tour of Camp Ripley, new national guard encampment, and later will visit the Lindbergh home.

The party also includes Oscar Swendsen, speaker of the house of representatives, and members of the house and senate appropriations and military affairs committees. Arrangements were made for a squadron of 15 national guard airplanes to accompany the train.

A banquet will be given the delegation before they leave for St. Paul tonight by the Little Falls board of commerce.

Local arrangements to turn the Lindbergh farm into a state park have been virtually completed. Deeds to the estate are expected to be received in a few days from Lindbergh and his mother.

POSSE OF 60 MEN SEARCH FOR BANK BANDIT'S PAL

ONE SUSPECT LIES CRITICALLY
WOUNDED IN MURPHYSBORO,
ILL., HOSPITAL

PAIR HAD SPENT TWO DAYS AT FARM HOUSE PLANNING
ROBBERY

Murphysboro, Ill., Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—While one suspected bank robber lies critically wounded in a hospital here today a posse of 60 men under the leadership of Sheriff W. W. Osborn of Jackson county searched the woods 15 miles north of here for his companion.

George Davis, 31, St. Louis police character, was shot last night by members of a posse searching for the two bandits who yesterday morning held up the First National Bank at Gorum, Ill., and escaped with $4,500. Davis was reported near death.

Davis was shot while attempting to escape after he was wounded but was near the farm of Vincent Lee. He escaped after he was wounded but was captured at the farm home of Ed Whistler where he sought aid.

Vincent Lee, his wife, a daughter Emma, Davis' sweetheart and Lee's cousin Herbert Lee were under arrest today held as accessories to the robbery.

Lee's wife and daughter confessed, according to Fletcher Lewis, state's attorney that Davis and another man had spent two days at the Lee farm planning the robbery.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Harry K. Thaw's former wife, Evelyn Nesbit, has filed suit here for divorce from Jack Clifford, an actor whose real name is Virgil James Moptani. She charges that he deserted her 10 years ago.

Bill to Redistrict State Makes Big Change in 6th District, Adds Some From Present 10th

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS CUT FROM 10 TO 9

BILL INTRODUCED IN THE STATE
SENATE BY SEN. W. L.
PETERSON

AITKIN OF PRESENT 6TH DIS-TRICT IS ADDED TO NEW DISTRICT 8

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—A bill to redistrict the state by cutting the congressional districts from 10 to 9 was introduced in the senate today by Sen. W. L. Peterson, Lancaster.

His bill calls for creation of nine congressional districts with total populations ranging near the $300,000 mark each. His bill is to care for the loss of one Minnesota congressman through population changes.

Sen. Peterson's bill would create the following districts:

Number 1—Houston, Fillmore, Freeborn, Mower, Olmstead, Winona, Dodge, Steele, Waseca, Rice, Goodhue and Wabasha counties with a population of 275,455. This takes Rice and Goodhue counties out of the present third.

Number 2—Faribault, Martin, Jackson, Nobles, Rock, Pipestone, Murray, Cottonwood, Watonwan, Blue Earth, LeSueur, Nicollet, Brown, Redwood, Lyon and Lincoln counties, with population of 286,274. This takes from the present third Nicollet and LeSueur counties and Lyon from the 7th.

Number 3—Scott, rural Hennepin, Dakota and Washington counties and wards 1, 3, 4, 9 and 10 of Minneapolis, with population of 297,869.

Number 4—Ramsey county only. Population, 286,721.

Number 5—Rest of Minneapolis and St. Anthony township. Population 293,828.

Number 6—Chisago, Pine, Kenabe, Isanti, Anoka and Mille Lacs counties, all out of the present 10th, and the following counties of the present 6th: Sherburne, Benton, Morrison, Crow Wing, Cass, Todd and Stearns. Population 266,299.

Number 7—Carver, Sibley and McLeod out of the present third; Wright, out of the 5th, and the following out of the present 7th: Meeker, Renville, Kandiyohi, Yellow Medicine, Laqui Parle, Chippewa, Swift, Pope, Douglas, Grant, Stevens, Traverse, Big Stone. Population 277,512.

Number 8—Cook, Lake, St. Louis, Carlton, Itasca, Koochiching out of the present 8th and Aitkin out of the 6th. Population 291,641.

Number 9—Kittson, Roseau, Marshall, Pennington, Red Lake, Polk, Clearwater, Norman, Mahonome, Clay, Becker, Ottertail and Wilkins counties out of the present 9th, and the following out of the present 6th: Hubbard, Wadena, Lake of the Woods and Beltrami. Population 274,372.

Investigations were reported to know the identity of many members of the mob. State investigators were reported to be gathering evidence which could be given to a grand jury. Three state officials were sent here by Governor Schafer to investigate the affair.

The lynching of Bannon was the 12th such occurrence in North Dakota's history.

Williston, N. D., Jan. 30.—Mrs. J. F. Bannon was in a state of collapse today after being told that her son, Charles, 22, was lynched by a mob at Schafer for the killing of a family of six persons.

"I knew all the time that Charles wasn't guilty," Mrs. Bannon said. "They were afraid he would reveal the identity of the real murderer."

"That is the reason they took him away from Williston, so they could hang him."

Mrs. Bannon was informed of the lynching by her husband, who is suspected of complicity in the killings. He was brought here yesterday from Schafer and locked in the county jail.

Stocks Advance Fractions to More Than a Point

By ELMER C. WALZER
United Press Financial Editor

New York, Jan. 30.—Stocks advanced fractions to more than a point at the opening today with trading fairly active.

Bethlehem opened at 51, up 1½, and its firmness was helpful in other sections of the market. United States Steel opened at 151½, up ½. Industrial issues generally were higher.

Rails were about steady; coppers held firm as did amusements.

BEGGAR FLASHES ROLL OF BILLS, PAYS HIS FINE

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Roy Schupert was arraigned before Judge Howard Hayes and charged by Policeman Thomas Coreoran with begging.

"He's a nuisance and every morning he begs breakfast money from folks on my beat," said Coreoran.

"Where do you live and what do you do besides beg?" asked Judge Hayes of Schupert.

"Nowhere and nothing," said Schupert.

"Then I'll give you some place to live, the workhouse, and something to do, work out a $10 fine," the judge said.

Coreoran stepped forward to lead his prisoner to jail.

"Just a moment!" interjected Schupert, reaching into a pocket from which he produced a large roll of bills. He paid his fine and left the courtroom.

REED CALLS FOR REDUCTION IN TAXATION

PRESIDENT OF MINNESOTA TAX-PAYERS' ASSOCIATION MAKES STATEMENT

OPPOSES ISSUANCE OF STATE
HIGHWAY BONDS AND STATE
INCOME TAX

Wabasso, Minn., Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Opposing issuance of state highway bonds and the proposed state income tax, James F. Reed, president of the Minnesota Taxpayers' Association, today called for a definite reduction in taxes.

Pointing out that present budget appropriations call for an increase of $2,500,000 while the state is confronted with an income reduction of similar amount, Reed, addressing the Redwood County Taxpayers Association, called upon the legislature to:

Lower taxes instead of attempting to invent new sources of revenue.

Eliminate extravagance, incurring only what obligations the state can afford to pay under present conditions.

Reduce the public debt by retiring bonds on which taxpayers pay $50 in interest for every $50 expended on improvements.

Prevent misuse of public funds by confining tax money to economical, governmental channels.

"Interest money on bonds doesn't come out of the air," Mr. Reed said in his attack on the $15,000,000 highway bonds. "The people of Minnesota will be forced to pay $40 to $100 interest on every $100 borrowed. This is not economy."

RELIEF WORKERS FIND MINER WHO WAS THOUGHT DEAD

DISCOVERY REDUCES DEATH TOLL IN LINTON MINE
BLAST TO 28

GOVERNOR HARRY G. LESLIE IS SUPERVISING RELIEF WORK AT MINE

Linton, Ind., Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Relief workers who went to the home of Fred Reed today to administer to his family in the belief the father had been killed in the Little Betty mine explosion found him alive.

The discovery reduced the death toll in the explosion which wrecked the workings Wednesday afternoon from 29 to 28.

Reed's body was reported yesterday to have been the 29th removed from the mine. Authorities officially posted his name as one of the dead.

The error was discovered in the course of the Red Cross workers' efforts to ascertain the needs of the bereaved families.

The news of Reed's escape in the disaster did not become known earlier because his home is at Jasonville, near Linton.

While the wants of other families were attended to, plans were made for separate funerals for each of the victims. The rites will be held tomorrow and Sunday.

2 Arrested for Alleged Violation of Dyer Act

Mason City, Iowa, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Arthur Perryman and Bernard Jones, both of Sioux Falls, S. D., were arrested here today for Huron, S. D., federal officials for alleged violation of the Dyer act. An automobile allegedly stolen at Huron Tuesday was recovered.

"ECONOMY" SENATORS AND REP-RESENTATIVES AGAINST ITS PASSAGE

$4,600,000 OF AMOUNT ARE FOR NECESSARY REFUND-
ING BONDS

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Commissioner C. M. Babcock's $20,000,000 highway construction bill assumed first ranking in the state legislature as "economy" senators and representatives massed to oppose passage of the measure.

The bill, which the senate highway committee sent to the house for consideration today provides that $20,000,000 in bonds be authorized for the highway department's use during the next two years, $4,600,000 to be in refunding bonds.

In an appearance before the committee, Babcock said that the $15,400,000 which would be added permanently to the highway funds is badly needed. He said that the department never has had sufficient funds to keep highways in a condition on a parallel with the increasing traffic.

Another bill passed by the highway committee and sent to the legislature provides that the roster of the state highway patrol be increased from 35 to 100 officers.

The bill has the support of Earle Brown, chief of the patrol. At the time the organization was formed, Brown requested that the force first consist of 35 men and later to be increased to 100.

After favorable action by both the house and senate, a resolution was mailed to Washington today urging congress to amend the federal banking law which provides indirectly that Minnesota national banks pay a higher tax rate than the taxes paid on other funds.

Among the routine bills sent to the legislature from committees was one that provides for an increase in the amounts spent by county jails for the meals of prisoners. The original bill applied only to counties of less than 150,000 population but was amended to apply to all counties.

The bill increases the amount to be spent for providing food from 70 cents to $1 a day for each prisoner.

The house was scheduled today to consider a bill designed to increase the price that Minnesota farmers can get for potatoes. The bill provides that potatoes shipped in carload lots be graded according to size and quality.

Rep. Elmer G. Holm of Dilworth, author of the bill, said that under such regulations Minnesota potatoes would compete more profitably with those produced in Wisconsin, Oregon and New York.

Trying 5 for Alleged Smuggling of Goods
Into United States

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Trial of five men, two of them Canadians, on charges of smuggling merchandise into the United States, continued in federal court today.

Arrested last May on board the Amherstburg, No. 18, off the coast of Sturgeon Bay, the men declared they knew nothing of the nature of the cargo. About 4,000 cases of Canadian beer was found on the boat.

The five defendants are Albert Williams, alias Albert Jackson, and Geo. Wilson, alias Bertram Bartwie, both of Canada; Frank Clark, Harry Slater and Edwin Benson, residents of the United States. Al Gorman, another member of the crew, forfeited his bonds and did not appear. The captain and two engineers escaped before the Plum island coast guard captured the boat last May.

REP. OSCAR DE PRIEST AND WIFE AT WHITE HOUSE RECEPTION

Washington, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Rep. Oscar De Priest, Rep. Ill., only negro member of congress, and Mrs. De Priest were among the more than 1,600 guests entertained last night at the first White House reception for members of the house.

There has been some discussion as to whether the De Priests would attend. They arrived with the other guests, however, and were greeted warmly by the president and Mrs. Hoover as they passed in the receiving line to shake hands.

The couple sat for some time in the east room. Speaker Longworth and Majority Floor Leader Tilson chatted with them briefly before their departure.

REITERATES REFUSAL TO ENDORSE MICHEL

Washington, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Reiterating his refusal to endorse Ernest Michel for the federal bench in Minnesota, Attorney General Mitchell today wrote Senator Schall, Rep. Minn., that appointment of Michel would be "a reproach upon the administration of justice."

GOVERNOR STARTS INVESTIGATION OF BANNON LYNCHING

INTENSE FEELING OVER KILLING APPARENTLY DIES DOWN AT SCHAFER, N. D.

BELIEVED YOUTH'S FATHER, J. F. BANNON, IS IN NO DANGER

Schafer, N. D., Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Under orders from Gov. George F. Schafer, an investigation was started today into the lynching of Charles Bannon, 22, who confessed that he killed six members of the A. E. Haven family at their farm home.

Intense feeling over the killing apparently had died down, however, and it was believed that the youth's father, James F. Bannon, who is under arrest in connection with the killings, was in no danger.

Before he died, young Bannon pleaded with the mob to spare his father, who he said was innocent. The mob of 80 men who smashed in the jail doors and overpowered Deputy Sheriff Peter Hallam did not molest the older man, who was removed later to Williston.

Investigators were reported to know the identity of many members of the mob. State investigators were reported to be gathering evidence which could be given to a grand jury. Three state officials were sent here by Governor Schafer to investigate the affair. The lynching of Bannon was the 12th such occurrence in North Dakota's history.

Williston, N. D., Jan. 30.—Mrs. J. F. Bannon was in a state of collapse today after being told that her son, Charles, 22, was lynched by a mob at Schafer for the killing of a family of six persons.

"I knew all the time that Charles wasn't guilty," Mrs. Bannon said. "They were afraid he would reveal the identity of the real murderer."

"That is the reason they took him away from Williston, so they could hang him."

Mrs. Bannon was informed of the lynching by her husband, who is suspected of complicity in the killings. He was brought here yesterday from Schafer and locked in the county jail.

Stocks Advance Fractions to More Than a Point

By ELMER C. WALZER
United Press Financial Editor
New York, Jan. 30.—Stocks advanced fractions to more than a point at the opening today with trading fairly active.

Bethlehem opened at 51, up 1 1/2, and its firmness was helpful in other sections of the market. United States Steel opened at 15 1/2, up 3/4. Industrial issues generally were higher.

Rails were about steady; coppers held firm as did amusements.

BEGGAR FLASHES ROLL OF BILLS, PAYS HIS FINE

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Roy Schupert was arraigned before Judge Howard Hayes and charged by Policeman Thomas Corcoran with begging.

"He's a nuisance and every morning he begs breakfast money from folks on my beat," said Corcoran.

"Where do you live and what do you do besides beg?" asked Judge Hayes of Schupert.

"Nowhere and nothing," said Schupert.

"Then I'll give you some place to live, the workhouse, and something to do, work out a $10 fine," the judge said.

Corcoran stepped forward to lead his prisoner to jail.

"Just a moment!" interjected Schupert, reaching into a pocket from which he produced a large roll of bills. He paid his fine and left the courtroom.

DOUGHNUTS ARE BETTER IF COOKED A FEW AT A TIME

Likewise Coffee Has More Delicious Flavor When Roasted in Small Lots

Experience shows that if too many doughnuts are put into the hot fat at once, the cooking process is hindered. The temperature of the fat is reduced and the doughnuts become greasy.

A similar situation occurs when coffee is roasted in bulk. It is difficult to apply the heat evenly, and as a result some of the coffee berries may be overdone and some underdone. Such variation in the roast causes disappointing variation in flavor.

Hills Bros. overcame this by inventing and patenting a process—Controlled Roasting—that roasts every coffee berry evenly. With automatic control of heat and speed of operation, a few pounds at a time pass through the roasters. Uniformity of roast and unequal flavor is the result.

Hills Bros. Coffee is always fresh when you buy it because it is packed in vacuum. This process takes air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, from the can and keeps it out. Coffee will not stay fresh in ordinary cans, even if air-tight. Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab on the can.

LEGION QUESTION
NIGHT FEBRUARY 2

Answers to Any Questions Concerning Governmental Rights of Legion Men to be Given

"In accordance with the statewide plan of The American Legion," declares Post Commander Jack Alton of the Carl Sidney Hanson Post No. 255, "all world war veterans of this vicinity are invited to bring puzzling questions concerning their governmental rights, to the next post meeting on Monday, February 2, at the Iron Exchange hall."

Part of the meeting, Commander Alton states, will be a 'service school' at which any buddy may ask for information on a specific claim or problem. In addition the answers to 200 somewhat similar questions, heretofore asked at Legion post service schools, will be announced. Some of them are sure to interest each comrade and may mean dollars to himself or his family.

According to Edwin L. Lindell, state adjutant, this unique method, which has proved far more effective in enlightening veterans as to their rights and how to prove their claims against the Veterans Bureau, than the usual lecture plan—this new idea originated in Minnesota and is now being adopted by posts of other states all over the nation. Pat Cliff of Ortonville, state Legion rehabilitation chairman, and Bill Kroll, head of the Minnesota State Soldier Welfare Bureau, are credited with a big share in developing the plan; and Regional Manager Carl Hibbard and his staff of the United States Veterans Bureau, have cooperated in digging up the right answers to puzzling questions, Adjutant Lindell says.

The local Legion service officer, E. H. Rhodes assures war veterans and their dependents, that it will be well worth their while to attend the Feb. 2 meeting, because, they will learn in an interesting way, how to file their claims with Uncle Sam. Those whose claims are on file, will be aided in submitting the right kind of evidence to prove them. "The American Legion was organized to serve its comrades and the communities in which its posts are located," said Mr. Rhodes, "and knowing that many buddies are still unaware of their governmental rights, our posts, in common with 470 all over Minnesota and 11,000 all over the nation, are taking this means of getting the information to our war-time comrades and the dependents of our dead buddies. All are invited to be with us February 2."

Counties Can Build Roads Outside Own Boundaries

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(UP)—The supreme court ruled today that counties can construct roads outside their own boundaries.

The ruling was given in a suit brought by Edwin M. Tausley against the Hennepin county auditor and board of county commissioners. He sought to restrain them from building a road in Anoka county, part of which ran through Columbia Heights. The lower court overruled the county's demurrer. The county appealed and won in the high court.

YOU NEVER KNEW
BRAN COULD BE SO DELICIOUS

KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is a delightful surprise. It is as good to eat as it is good for you.

This appetizing ready-to-eat cereal protects and relieves you from constipation—and from the headaches, the dizziness, the lack of "pep" that go with it.

Start the whole family on this health-habit tomorrow. Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN, eaten daily, will prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, eat ALL-BRAN with each meal.

Delicious with milk or cream, fruits or honey added. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron, which brings color to cheeks and lips. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

GOVERNOR OLSON
APPOINTS AN
EMPLOYMENT AGENT

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Gov. Floyd B. Olson appointed an employment agent today when he discovered that the hundreds of persons of job-seekers who have appeared at his office recently were keeping him from his official duties.

The governor commissioner Martin Odlund, his executive secretary, as employment agent in charge of all applicants for positions. Then he issued this statement:

"Applicants for subordinate positions are requested to fill out and file with Mr. Odlund their applications. He will deliver them to the governor."

"The governor regrets that by reason of the large number of such applicants it is physically impossible for him to see them personally."

SOME ROADS ARE REPORTED SLIPPERY

According to the weekly road condition report issued by the State Highway department today, trunk highway conditions are about the same as a week ago except that some roads are reported slippery as a result of thawing and rains. Motorists are advised to drive cautiously because of frost heaves, occasional roughness and the slippery condition.

The snowfall was generally light and all roads are open. Detailed reports follow, referring to the Brainerd Lake Region:

T. H. No. 2—Duluth, Brainerd, Wadena, Detroit Lakes and Moorhead—260 miles—Duluth - paved - Carlton - good - McGregor - fair - good - Turner Lake - good - Detroit Lakes - paved - Moorhead.

T. H. No. 18—Elk River, Milaca and Brainerd—103 miles—Good.

T. H. No. 27—St. Cloud, Little Falls and Brainerd—62 miles—Paved.

Olson Conservation Program Approved

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Senate and house leaders today approved Gov. Floyd B. Olson's conservation program which provides for moving isolated farmers from forest area farms to rural credit bureau farms in other sections of the state.

They declared that every effort would be made to rush through legislation outlined by the governor as early as possible.

CANADA LEADS IN PULP PRODUCTION

Montreal, Jan. 30.—(UP)—As long as the newsprint industry remains dependent on spruce wood for pulp, the Canadian industry will have the advantage over that of other countries, Dr. Charles W. Boyce secretary of the American Pulp and Paper Association told prominent Canadian executives at the 13th annual meeting of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association.

The Canadian newsprint paper industry, which produced 37 per cent of the world's supply in 1929, is sound in point of production, he said, in spite of the fact it is heavily mortgaged and carries an extremely heavy overhead.

No County Taxes on Lands
Taken Over by State
Rural Credits Bureau

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(UP)—The state supreme court ruled today that counties cannot collect taxes on land within their boundaries which has been taken over by the State Rural Credits bureau. The ruling was on an appeal by Polk county, which sought to collect taxes on 30 tracts of land taken over by the bureau. The supreme court held that the bureau is an agency of the state and not subject to taxation.

Mrs. R. A. Beise is Hostess in Honor of Mrs. B. T. Kemerer

Mrs. R. A. Beise entertained informally at a tea at her home, 621 North Fourth street, yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. B. T. Kemerer, enabling the ladies of St. Paul's guild and visiting clergy's wives to meet Mrs. Kemerer, wife of Bishop Kemerer, coadjutor of the diocese of Duluth. Bishop and Mrs. Kemerer were house guests of Mrs. Beise during the dedication of St. Paul's church.

Among the out of town ladies entertained were Mrs. W. E. A. LeQueune, Mrs. O. S. Kempton, Mrs. C. T. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. C. C. Randall of Duluth and Mrs. L. W. Hallett of International Falls.

This was Mrs. Kemerer's first visit to this parish. She left this morning with Bishop Kemerer for Little Falls. He will attend the banquet this evening given for Governor Floyd B. Olson and state officials and tomorrow will conduct services at the Episcopal church there.

Retiring President of Aid is Honored

The ladies aid of the Zion Lutheran church met yesterday afternoon at the church in regular session. Following the business meeting Mrs. Jacob Graff, retiring president, was presented with several gifts from ladies present, in appreciation of her work in the ladies aid and also because of it being her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Graff has been president of the aid for six years. She is succeeded by Mrs. Claus Theorin.

BRAINERD
25 Years Ago

January 30, 1906

The mill of the Brainerd Lumber Company in the city was sold today, but names of parties to whom the property was sold has not as yet been divulged.

The records of births and deaths in the city of Brainerd for the past year shows the one nearly ran neck and neck with the other, the number of deaths exceeding the number of births by only four. Deaths numbered 134, births 130.

Wendell Hertig of Minneapolis was in the city yesterday closing a deal with Judge G. W. Holland for 1300 acres in St. Mathias township. It is understood that there are some good ore indications at this point.

William Wood yesterday purchased what is known as the Kellehan corner, corner Laurel and Sixth streets, owned by Mrs. Mary Kellehan. For several years now the store building has been occupied by George West who has a saloon and restaurant. Mr. Wood states he plans to build a solid brick block here the coming year.

Brainerd will have four weeks of summer school this year instead of six as heretofore for the past year or so, Supt. Wilson stated today.

President G. D. LaFol of the First National and Mayor Con O'Brien returned from Minneapolis this morning, where they had been in the interest of the Brainerd mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Treglawny have returned from Livingston, Mont., and expect to make Brainerd their home in the future.

F. H. Gruenhagen returned last evening from a business trip to Atkin.

W. H. Gemmell is Named Delegate of Episcopalians to Denver

At the close of the three day convention of the Episcopal diocese of Duluth and its auxiliary, held at St. Cloud, W. H. Gemmell of the city was chosen as one of the delegates to the national convention in September, to be held at Denver. W. H. Gemmell was also named on the standing committee. Rev. C. M. Brandon was named as one of the members of the council for three years.

Sub-district Missionary Meeting of Methodists Held at Crosby Today

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. G. E. Lammon, Miss Minnie Franklin, Mrs. John Zander, Miss Vivian Foster, Mrs. Walter Kurz and Rev. F. A. Kufus, delegates from the local M. E. church, left this morning for Crosby to attend the sub-district missionary meeting of the church, being held this morning and afternoon.

Delegates were present from Brainerd, Deerwood, Aitkin, Hill City and Crosby.

Mrs. Blaine Lambert of Duluth, district secretary, was the principal speaker at the sessions this morning, and conducted round table discussions on Missionary work this afternoon.

Celebrates Her 11th Birthday

Little June Ludlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ludlow, 612 South Broadway, celebrated her 11th birthday anniversary last evening by entertaining about 20 of her friends.

The evening was spent in games and music, followed by refreshments.

DOUGHNUTS ARE BETTER IF COOKED A FEW AT A TIME

Likewise Coffee Has More Delicious Flavor When Roasted in Small Lots

Experience shows that if too many doughnuts are put into the hot fat at once, the cooking process is hindered. The temperature of the fat is reduced and the doughnuts become greasy.

A similar situation occurs when coffee is roasted in bulk. It is difficult to apply the heat evenly, and as a result some of the coffee berries may be overdone and some underdone. Such variation in the roast causes disappointing variation in flavor.

Hills Bros. overcame this by inventing and patenting a process—Controlled Roasting—that roasts every coffee berry evenly. With automatic control of heat and speed of operation, a few pounds at a time pass through the roasters. Uniformity of roast and unequalled flavor is the result.

Hills Bros. Coffee is always fresh when you buy it because it is packed in vacuum. This process takes air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, from the can and keeps it out. Coffee will not stay fresh in ordinary cans, even if air-tight. Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab on the can.

LEGION QUESTION
NIGHT FEBRUARY 2

Answers to Any Questions Concerning Governmental Rights of Legion Men to be Given

"In accordance with the statewide plan of The American Legion," declares Post Commander Jack Alton of the Carl Sidney Hanson Post No. 255, "all world war veterans of this vicinity are invited to bring puzzling questions concerning their governmental rights, to the next post meeting on Monday, February 2, at the Iron Exchange hall."

Part of the meeting, Commander Alton states, will be a "service school" at which any buddy may ask for information on a specific claim or problem. In addition the answers to 200 somewhat similar questions, heretofore asked at Legion post service schools, will be announced. Some of them are sure to interest each comrade and may mean dollars to himself or his family.

According to Edwin L. Lindell, state adjutant, this unique method, which has proved far more effective in enlightening veterans as to their rights and how to prove their claims against the Veterans Bureau, than the usual lecture plan—this new idea originated in Minnesota and is now being adopted by posts of other states all over the nation. Pat Cliff of Ortonville, state Legion rehabilitation chairman, and Bill Kroll, head of the Minnesota State Soldier Welfare Bureau, are credited with a big share in developing the plan; and Regional Manager Carl Hibbard and his staff of the United States Veterans Bureau, have cooperated in digging up the right answers to puzzling questions, Adjutant Lindell says.

The local Legion service officer, E. H. Rhodes assures war veterans and their dependents, that it will be well worth their while to attend the Feb. 2 meeting, because they will learn in an interesting way, how to file their claims with Uncle Sam. Those whose claims are on file, will be aided in submitting the right kind of evidence to prove them. "The American Legion was organized to serve its comrades and the communities in which its posts are located," said Mr. Rhodes, "and knowing that many buddies are still unaware of their governmental rights, our posts, in common with 470 all over Minnesota and 11,000 all over the nation, are taking this means of getting the information to our war-time comrades and the dependents of our dead buddies. All are invited to be with us February 2."

Dorcas Society to Be Entertained at Home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Anderson

The Dorcas society of the Swedish Bethany church will meet this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Anderson, 607 Third avenue N. E., at 8 o'clock. Mrs. P. G. Falkquist and Mrs. Anderson are entertaining hostesses. A lunch will be served after the following program:
Piano solo—Ruth Falkquist.
Vocal selection—Group of Young Men.
Vocal duet—Earl Peterson and Ruby Osborne.
Reading—Irja Hautala.
Piano solo—Pernina Oliver.

Counties Can Build Roads Outside Own Boundaries

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(UP)—The supreme court ruled today that counties can construct roads outside their own boundaries.

The ruling was given in a suit brought by Edwin M. Tausley against the Hennepin county auditor and board of county commissioners. He sought to restrain them from building a road in Anoka county, part of which ran through Columbia Heights.

The lower court overruled the county's demurrer. The county appealed and won in the high court.

YOU NEVER KNEW BRAN COULD BE SO DELICIOUS

KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is a delightful surprise. It is as good to eat as it is good for you.

This appetizing ready-to-eat cereal protects and relieves you from constipation—and from the headaches, the dizziness, the lack of "pep" that go with it.

Start the whole family on this health-habit tomorrow. Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN, eaten daily, will prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, eat ALL-BRAN with each meal.

Delicious with milk or cream, fruits or honey added. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron, which brings color to cheeks and lips. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

GOVERNOR OLSON
APPOINTS AN
EMPLOYMENT AGENT

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Gov. Floyd B. Olson appointed an employment agent today when he discovered that the hundreds of persons of job-seekers who have appeared at his office recently were keeping him from his official duties.

The governor commissioner Martin Odlund, his executive secretary, as employment agent in charge of all applicants for positions. Then he issued this statement:

"Applicants for subordinate positions are requested to fill out and file with Mr. Odlund their applications. He will deliver them to the governor."

"The governor regrets that by reason of the large number of such applicants it is physically impossible for him to see them personally."

SOME ROADS ARE REPORTED SLIPPERY

According to the weekly road condition report issued by the State Highway department today, trunk highway conditions are about the same as a week ago except that some roads are reported slippery as a result of thawing and rains. Motorists are advised to drive cautiously because of frost heaves, occasional roughness and the slippery condition.

The snowfall was generally light and all roads are open. Detailed reports follow, referring to the Brainerd Lake Region:

T. H. No. 2—Duluth, Brainerd, Wadena, Detroit Lakes and Moorhead—260 miles—Duluth - paved - Carlton - good - McGregor - fair - good - Turner Lake - good - Detroit Lakes - paved - Moorhead.

T. H. No. 18—Elk River, Milaca and Brainerd—103 miles—Good.

T. H. No. 19—Brainerd, Walker and Cass Lake—93 miles—Good.

T. H. No. 27—St. Cloud, Little Falls and Brainerd—62 miles—Paved.

Olson Conservation Program Approved

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Senate and house leaders today approved Gov. Floyd B. Olson's conservation program, which provides for moving isolated farmers from forest area farms to rural credit bureau farms in other sections of the state.

They declared that every effort would be made to rush through legislation outlined by the governor as early as possible.

CANADA LEADS IN PULP PRODUCTION

Montreal, Jan. 30.—(UP)—As long as the newsprint industry remains dependent on spruce wood for pulp, the Canadian industry will have the advantage over that of other countries, Dr. Charles W. Boyce secretary of the American Pulp and Paper Association told prominent Canadian executives at the 13th annual meeting of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association.

The Canadian newsprint paper industry, which produced 37 per cent of the world's supply in 1929, is sound in point of production, he said, in spite of the fact it is heavily mortgaged and carries an extremely heavy overhead.

No County Taxes on Lands
Taken Over by State
Rural Credits Bureau

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—(UP)—The state supreme court ruled today that counties cannot collect taxes on land within their boundaries which has been taken over by the State Rural Credits bureau.

The ruling was on an appeal by Polk county, which sought to collect taxes on 30 tracts of land taken over by the bureau. The supreme court held that the bureau is an agency of the state and not subject to taxation.

HOUSE AGAINST SENATE IN RED CROSS RELIEF

AIMS TO VOTE ON APPROPRIATION AND KILL $25,000,000 BILL

DECISION FOR THE VOTE TODAY COMES AFTER DEMOCRATIC MANEUVERS

By THOMAS L. STOKES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Jan. 30. — Republican house leaders moved today to support President Hoover and the Red Cross against the senate by bringing up the $25,000,000 relief appropriation for a vote with the aim of killing it.

The decision for a vote today was sudden, apparently maneuvered into it by democratic charges that they were trying to hold up the controversial matter indefinitely. These charges seemed to bear peculiar weight at this time because of the storm created by the Red Cross refusal to administer the $25,000,000 if it is voted.

Republican leaders heretofore have not been deterred from their course by the democratic charges, and some took their decision to vote today as indicating a belief that the house would stand behind them. There was not the confidence on this vote, however, that has been evident on previous occasions, although Majority Floor Leader Tilson predicted the house would vote against the appropriation.

Democrats, meanwhile, were ready with a plan to get around the Red Cross refusal, through an amendment to vote the money to President Hoover to be administered by some governmental agency designated by him.

The administration's counter attack upon advocates of further cash payments to world war veterans was scheduled for today if a compromise project can be perfected in time for submission in the house or senate.

Plans for the administration are secret, but the United Press was informed the substitute program would increase the rights of veterans to borrow but would not require a bond issue. Financial details of the legislation were under scrutiny yesterday to determine whether the treasury department could accept them.

Unless the counter-attack is made quickly it may be unavailing. Administration defenses are weak and unless some substitute proposal can be put forward, republicans will desert President Hoover on this issue as he has not been deserted in his administration so far.

Inquiry in the senate fails to reveal a dozen men willing now to say without qualification they will oppose voting further cash to the veterans.

Majority Leader Watson probably would vote against such a scheme. So would Republican Senators Reed of Pennsylvania and Bingham, Connecticut. A few others commit themselves now. The democrats are almost unanimous in support of cash payments now.

ROCKNE MAY BE CANDIDATE FOR FEDERAL JUDGESHIP

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 30.—(UP)—State Senator A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota, Minn., may be the administration's compromise candidate in the dispute over naming Ernest Michel of Minneapolis to Minnesota's new federal judgeship, it was reported today. Rockne's name was reported at the state capitol to be receiving favorable consideration in Washington, D. C., following Attorney General W. D. Mitchell's attack on appointment of Michel.

Denying that he is an active candidate for the judgeship, Rockne said today that "even mention of my name in that connection is a great honor. I would most certainly accept the appointment if it came."

Sensor Rockne has been an active practicing attorney at Zumbrota for 35 years.

PUBLIC EMBEZZLER DENIED NEW TRIAL

Deadwood, S. D., Jan. 30.—(UP)—Judge Harold R. Hanley denied today a motion for a new trial for George H. Wolfe, former county treasurer who was found guilty by a district court last June on two charges of embezzlement.

Defense attorneys had based their plea for a retrial on claims that the jury was prejudiced, the court record was in error and prosecutors were guilty of misconduct. Judge Hanley ruled that the claims were unsubstantiated.

Wolfe's bond of $6,500 was ordered revoked, but he was granted a stay on execution of sentence pending an appeal to the state supreme court.

On the first charge of embezzlement Wolfe was sentenced to five years imprisonment and fined $1,000. He was given an intermediate sentence of from one to 20 years imprisonment on the second count.

T. 134, RANGES 28 AND 29

Mr. Haft has located his sawmill on Section 9 just south of Parkerville and has quite a crew cutting the timber, and putting the logs onto skidways preparatory to the main work of sawing them into lumber later. Locating this sawmill at the above place will be a great convenience to neighbors who have timber to saw, as Mr. Howard Spennier, it is reported, does not intend running his mill the coming season.

Several of the neighbors have been busy of late sawing up their summer's wood.

Harold Hilliard has rigged up quite a wood sawing outfit by using an old Ford engine for power, belted to a saw mounted on a frame he made while attending manual training at Brainerd high.

Earnest Dorsette has been having excellent success this winter with quite a large flock of white leghorn pullets. They have been averaging nearly 60 percent egg production.

A 4H club has been organized in Beaver Dam district. This is a good thing—too had it wasn't organized years ago. By the way what is the Gordon school 4H club doing?

We have, as yet, no name suggested for naming this district, comprising the unorganized territory northwest of Brainerd. Come folks let's have your suggestions for a name. Just a card with a name (or several, if you wish) on it, addressed to "Persimmons" care of "The Dispatch" will do.

What has become of all the rabbits that were so plentiful earlier in the season? Even partridges and prairie chickens seem to have vanished. Wonder if they've gone north to balmey Canada we hear so much about of late.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hilliard a bouncing baby boy on January 28.

FEEL CONFIDENT THAT FRANCE WILL RETAIN DAVIS CUP IN 1931

Paris, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Even with Rene Lacoste out of the cup finals, Pierre Gillou, captain of the French Davis cup team and recently elected president of the French Lawn Tennis federation, feels confident that France will retain the Davis cup in 1931, he told the United Press.

Lacoste was forced to retire from active tennis last year because of ill health. Since then, he has played little or no tennis. Although he has offered to start outdoor practice early this spring, Gillou is skeptical of his ability to reach top form by July. So it appears that last year's champions—Cochet, Borotra, Brugnon and Bousus—will again meet all comers in an attempt to retain the Davis cup.

The new Autel stadium, Roland Garros, generally acknowledged to be the world's most beautiful center court, will again be the scene of the championship play. The first round matches will have to start in about three months, being under the necessity of ending May 5. The European zone final will take place July 12, the interzone final July 17, 18 and 19 and challenge round July 24, 25 and 26.

2 ARMED BANDITS HOLD UP CASHIER AT PICKETT, WIS.

Pickett, Wis., Jan. 30.—(UP)—Two armed bandits held up cashier H. W. Gauffenbach in the bank of Pickett today and escaped amid a barrage of pistol shots with less than $500 cash.

MINNESOTA BAR OPPOSES MICHEL

VOTE FOUR TO ONE AGAINST HIS APPOINTMENT AS FEDERAL JUDGE

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 30.—(UP)—The Minnesota Bar Association voted approximately four to one against the appointment of Ernest Michel, Minneapolis, as federal judge in this state. The count was 978 to 293, it was announced this afternoon.

Chester L. Caldwell, secretary of the association, said that 1561 ballots had been mailed members, 1341 returned and 72 of these were void.

Josh Billings Says

"The man who has it the most is the quickest to see it in others."

MILDRED

Rev. Gilbert spoke at the school house Sunday afternoon.

Last Saturday was a general wood-sawing occasion for some of us. T. G. McCabe and C. M. Swift have a fresh supply of fuel. Pat Degnan, Tenny Adamson, A. LeVoie and Bill Newman assisted at McCabe's.

Some of the residents near Mildred have been much alarmed by terrifying screams at night. It is believed by some to be a panther or lynx. Others contend that it can be neither because no tracks have been seen.

Bill Newman and Tenny Adamson have been putting in cord wood at the school house.

The LeVoie family is moving out of the community this week. They have been renting the property formerly owned by Mrs. A. I. Mustard.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howe accompanied Harry Rhoades to Brainerd Saturday, upon another visit to Dr. Fredrick.

Must Have the Sun

Though the sun scorches us sometimes, and gives us the headache, we do not refuse to acknowledge that it can be neither because no tracks have been seen.

WHEN this riding habit was in vogue, mechanically roasted coffee was also something new.

Today both the habit and roasted coffee are equally obsolete, equally out of date.

Nash's Toasted Coffee is the only really different coffee since women rode side-saddle—different because it is toasted by a new, scientific process. All other coffees are roasted—the method in vogue thirty years ago.

Science finds that toasting creates a coffee with 35.7% more flavor than the same coffee when roasted.

HOUSE AGAINST SENATE IN RED CROSS RELIEF

AIMS TO VOTE ON APPROPRIATION AND KILL $25,000,000 BILL.

DECISION FOR THE VOTE TODAY COMES AFTER DEMOCRATIC MANEUVERS

By THOMAS L. STOKES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Jan. 30. — Republican house leaders moved today to support President Hoover and the Red Cross against the senate by bringing up the $25,000,000 relief appropriation for a vote with the aim of killing it.

The decision for a vote today was sudden, apparently maneuvered into it by democratic charges that they were trying to hold up the controversial matter indefinitely. These charges seemed to bear peculiar weight at this time because of the storm created by the Red Cross refusal to administer the $25,000,000 if it is voted.

Republican leaders heretofore have not been deterred from their course by the democratic charges, and some took their decision to vote today as indicating a belief that the house would stand behind them. There was not the confidence on this vote, however, that has been evident on previous occasions, although Majority Floor Leader Tilson predicted the house would vote against the appropriation.

Democrats, meanwhile, were ready with a plan to get around the Red Cross refusal, through an amendment to vote the money to President Hoover to be administered by some governmental agency designated by him.

The administration's counter attack upon advocates of further cash payments to world war veterans was scheduled for today if a compromise project can be perfected in time for submission in the house or senate.

Plans for the administration are secret, but the United Press was informed the substitute program would increase the rights of veterans to borrow but would not require a bond issue. Financial details of the legislation were under scrutiny yesterday to determine whether the treasury department could accept them.

Unless the counter-attack is made quickly it may be unavailing. Administration defenses are weak and unless some substitute proposal can be put forward, republicans will desert President Hoover on this issue as he has not been deserted in his administration so far.

Inquiry in the senate fails to reveal a dozen men willing now to say without qualification they will oppose voting further cash to the veterans.

Majority Leader Watson probably would vote against such a scheme. So would Republican Senators Reed of Pennsylvania and Bingham, Connecticut. A few others commit themselves now. The democrats are almost unanimous in support of cash payments now.

ROCKNE MAY BE CANDIDATE FOR FEDERAL JUDGESHIP

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 30.—(UP)—State Senator A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota, Minn., may be the administration's compromise candidate in the dispute over naming Ernest Michel of Minneapolis to Minnesota's new federal judgeship, it was reported today. Rockne's name was reported at the state capitol to be receiving favorable consideration in Washington, D. C., following Attorney General W. D. Mitchell's attack on appointment of Michel.

Denying that he is an active candidate for the judgeship, Rockne said today that "even mention of my name in that connection is a great honor. I would most certainly accept the appointment if it came."

Senator Rockne has been an active practicing attorney at Zumbrota for 35 years.

PUBLIC EMBEZZLER DENIED NEW TRIAL

Deadwood, S. D., Jan. 30.—(UP)—Judge Harold R. Hanley denied today a motion for a new trial for George H. Wolfe, former county treasurer who was found guilty by a district court last June on two charges of embezzlement.

Defense attorneys had based their plea for a retrial on claims that the jury was prejudiced, the court record was in error and prosecutors were guilty of misconduct. Judge Hanley ruled that the claims were unsubstantiated.

Wolfe's bond of $6,500 was ordered revoked, but he was granted a stay on execution of sentence pending an appeal to the state supreme court.

On the first charge of embezzlement Wolfe was sentenced to five years imprisonment and fined $1,000. He was given an intermediate sentence of from one to 20 years imprisonment on the second count.

T. 134, RANGES 28 AND 29

Mr. Haft has located his sawmill on Section 9 just south of Parkville and has quite a crew cutting the timber, and putting the logs onto skidways preparatory to the main work of sawing them into lumber later. Locating this sawmill at the above place will be a great convenience to neighbors who have timber to saw, as Mr. Howard Spencer, it is reported, does not intend running his mill the coming season.

Several of the neighbors have been busy of late sawing up their summer's wood.

Harold Hilliard has rigged up quite a wood sawing outfit by using an old Ford engine for power, belted to a saw mounted on a frame he made while attending manual training at Brainerd high.

Earnest Dorsette has been having excellent success this winter with quite a large flock of white leghorn pullets. They have been averaging nearly 60 percent egg production.

A 4H club has been organized in Beaver Dam district. This is a good thing—too bad it wasn't organized years ago. By the way what is the Gordon school 4H club doing?

We have, as yet, no name suggested for naming this district, comprising the unorganized territory northwest of Brainerd. Come folks let's have your suggestions for a name. Just a card with a name (or several, if you wish) on it, addressed to "Persimmons' care of 'The Dispatch'" will do.

What has become of all the rabbits that were so plentiful earlier in the season? Even partridges and prairie chickens seem to have vanished. Wonder if they've gone north to balmey Canada we hear so much about of late.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hilliard a bouncing baby boy on January 28.

FEEL CONFIDENT THAT FRANCE WILL RETAIN DAVIS CUP IN 1931

Paris, Jan. 30.—(UP)—Even with Rene Lacoste out of the cup finals, Pierre Gillou, captain of the French Davis cup team and recently elected president of the French Lawn Tennis federation, feels confident that France will retain the Davis cup in 1931, he told the United Press.

Lacoste was forced to retire from active tennis last year because of ill health. Since then, he has played little or no tennis. Although he has offered to start outdoor practice early this spring, Gillou is skeptical of his ability to reach top form by July. So it appears that last year's champions—Cochet, Borotra, Brugnon and Bousus—will again meet all comers in an attempt to retain the Davis cup.

The new Auteuil stadium, Roland Garros, generally acknowledged to be the world's most beautiful center court, will again be the scene of the championship play. The first round matches will have to start in about three months, being under the necessity of ending May 5. The European zone final will take place July 12, the interzone final July 17, 18 and 19 and challenge round July 24, 25 and 26.

MILDRED

Rev. Gilbert spoke at the school house Sunday afternoon.

Last Saturday was a general wood-sawing occasion for some of us. T. C. McCabe and C. M. Swift have a fresh supply of fuel. Pat Degnan, Tenny Adamson, A. LeVoie and Bill Newman assisted at McCabe's.

Some of the residents near Mildred have been much alarmed by terrifying screams at night. It is believed by some to be a panther or lynx. Others contend that it can be neither because no tracks have been seen.

Bill Newman and Tenny Adamson have been putting in cord wood at the school house.

The LeVoie family is moving out of the community this week. They have been renting the property formerly owned by Mrs. Al Mustard.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howe accompanied Harry Rhoades to Brainerd Saturday, upon another visit to Dr. Fredrick.

The Tax on Gasoline

At least once in every year the gasoline tax comes up for extended discussion, with violent attacks and spirited defenses sharing a good deal of space in the public prints, says the Bemidji Daily Pioneer. Since this is a tax that comes close to home to nearly everyone, this is no wonder; and a new controversy on the matter seems to be brewing right now.

Some statistician has figured that the average American motorist pays fully $18 a year in gasoline taxes. That in itself would not be so bad if the figure would only remain stationary. But it never does. Gasoline taxes are only revised in one direction—upwards. Probably a great majority of all state legislatures this winter will debate an increase in this tax, and in many of them an increase undoubtedly will be adopted.

The collection of the tax is painless enough; but the size of it is rather awesome. In Ohio, for example (a fair sample of average conditions in America), the tax is four cents a gallon. This, when you examine it, is revealed as a tax of 25 per cent of the retail price of the commodity. Apply such a tax to any other article of daily public consumption and you would get a terrific storm of protest.

The chief reason why there is so little discontent probably lies in the fact that revenues from gasoline taxes go to build roads. Every motorist wants his state lined with good roads, and he is usually quick to see the fairness of a tax which builds these roads at the expense of the people who use them. But here and there one can find signs of a change. In a few states money has been taken from the gasoline tax revenues to meet other state obligations.

If that procedure should be widely adopted, the gasoline tax would beyond question become extremely unpopular. Even though he has to pay $18 a year, the ordinary motorist will not object greatly so long as the money goes for good roads. But once he finds that money being drained off to help support other departments of the state government, the motorist is sure to put up a loud protest. And he would be amply justified in doing so.

Encouraging Outlook for Business

THE rather encouraging way in which the basic industries have responded to the seasonal influences making for revival has been the outstanding business development during the opening weeks of the new year, states the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, in the current issue of The Guaranty Survey. We quote in part:

"From numerous branches of manufacture and from various sections of the country have come the reports of increasing output and rising employment. Stock and commodity markets have caught the improved tone of general business—not with any sharp and sustained advance, but at least with more firmness than has been visible for some time previously. Money rates have declined further, and some improvement has occurred in the bond market. On the whole, therefore, the situation is unquestionably better than it was a month ago.

"In December and January, two conditions have appeared that throw a favorable light on the position of consumers—namely, the relatively small decrease in holiday buying and the hearty response of the public to the annual automobile shows. It appears that even in December the trend of business activity was more favorable than was generally supposed."

Farm Bureau Federation Ideas

A GRADUATED state income tax and a 4-cent gas tax were endorsed by the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation at its annual meeting held at St. Paul. While voicing their favor of these changes in Minnesota's system of taxation, the Farm Bureau went on record against the proposed $20,000,000 bond issue for highway improvement.

As stated in publicity sent out by the Farm Bureau, objections were voiced in resolutions to the present system whereby the farmers of Minnesota, it is claimed, pay the entire cost of maintaining the state prison through their purchases of binder twine and farm machinery manufactured by the prisoners.

Bureau delegates offered this argument, that whereas it would be satisfactory to them that the twine and machinery plants pay their own overhead, the patrons of these industries should not be required to pay the entire costs of the institution, that as the cities furnish most of the criminals with which the institution is populated, city folk should pay through taxation some part of the expense of caring for their felons.

The convention was attended by about 700 delegates, thus giving the deliberations representation from all over the state.

It is a most unusual condition of things when droughts prevail in winter as well as in summer. There has been a noticeable lack of moisture up to standard in the Brainerd Lake Region affecting lake levels as well as farming land. Everyone, however, pins hopes on snow later and much rain in the early spring.

By a unanimous vote the council of Little Falls has given its support to the Knutson lake levels bill and will send a copy of its resolutions to every senator and representative in Congress. The Board of Commerce took similar action Monday evening.

FIRST camp at Camp Ripley is scheduled for the period June 14 to 28, when the 59th Field Artillery Brigade, 34th Division Aviation and 118th Motor Repair Section will go in training. Thereafter the schedule is full until the end of August.

LITTLE FALLS has repealed 242 old ordinances, doing away with laws governing hitching posts on Main street, bicycle speed regulations, etc. Many a town can profit by having its ordinances recodified and following the example of Little Falls.

CHORE men who will swap their services in exchange for board and room will be available to local farmers through a service being worked out by the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation.

The Tax on Gasoline

At least once in every year the gasoline tax comes up for extended discussion, with violent attacks and spirited defenses sharing a good deal of space in the public prints, says the Bemidji Daily Pioneer. Since this is a tax that comes close to home to nearly everyone, this is no wonder; and a new controversy on the matter seems to be brewing right now.

Some statistician has figured that the average American motorist pays fully $18 a year in gasoline taxes. That in itself would not be so bad if the figure would only remain stationary. But it never does. Gasoline taxes are only revised in one direction—upwards. Probably a great majority of all state legislatures this winter will debate an increase in this tax, and in many of them an increase undoubtedly will be adopted.

The collection of the tax is painless enough; but the size of it is rather awesome. In Ohio, for example (a fair sample of average conditions in America), the tax is four cents a gallon. This, when you examine it, is revealed as a tax of 25 per cent of the retail price of the commodity. Apply such a tax to any other article of daily public consumption and you would get a terrific storm of protest.

The chief reason why there is so little discontent probably lies in the fact that revenues from gasoline taxes go to build roads. Every motorist wants his state lined with good roads, and he is usually quick to see the fairness of a tax which builds these roads at the expense of the people who use them. But here and there one can find signs of a change. In a few states money has been taken from the gasoline tax revenues to meet other state obligations.

If that procedure should be widely adopted, the gasoline tax would beyond question become extremely unpopular. Even though he has to pay $18 a year, the ordinary motorist will not object greatly so long as the money goes for good roads. But once he finds that money being drained off to help support other departments of the state government, the motorist is sure to put up a loud protest. And he would be amply justified in doing so.

Encouraging Outlook for Business

THE rather encouraging way in which the basic industries have responded to the seasonal influences making for revival has been the outstanding business development during the opening weeks of the new year, states the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, in the current issue of The Guaranty Survey. We quote in part:

"From numerous branches of manufacture and from various sections of the country have come the reports of increasing output and rising employment. Stock and commodity markets have caught the improved tone of general business—not with any sharp and sustained advance, but at least with more firmness than has been visible for some time previously. Money rates have declined further, and some improvement has occurred in the bond market. On the whole, therefore, the situation is unquestionably better than it was a month ago.

"In December and January, two conditions have appeared that throw a favorable light on the position of consumers—namely, the relatively small decrease in holiday buying and the hearty response of the public to the annual automobile shows. It appears that even in December the trend of business activity was more favorable than was generally supposed."

Farm Bureau Federation Ideas

A GRADUATED state income tax and a 4-cent gas tax were endorsed by the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation at its annual meeting held at St. Paul. While voicing their favor of these changes in Minnesota's system of taxation, the Farm Bureau went on record against the proposed $20,000,000 bond issue for highway improvement.

As stated in publicity sent out by the Farm Bureau, objections were voiced in resolutions to the present system whereby the farmers of Minnesota, it is claimed, pay the entire cost of maintaining the state prison through their purchases of binder twine and farm machinery manufactured by the prisoners.

Bureau delegates offered this argument, that whereas it would be satisfactory to them that the twine and machinery plants pay their own overhead, the patrons of these industries should not be required to pay the entire costs of the institution, that as the cities furnish most of the criminals with which the institution is populated, city folk should pay through taxation some part of the expense of caring for their felons.

The convention was attended by about 700 delegates, thus giving the deliberations representation from all over the state.

It is a most unusual condition of things when droughts prevail in winter as well as in summer. There has been a noticeable lack of moisture up to standard in the Brainerd Lake Region affecting lake levels as well as farming land. Everyone, however, pins hopes on snow later and much rain in the early spring.

By a unanimous vote the council of Little Falls has given its support to the Knutson lake levels bill and will send a copy of its resolutions to every senator and representative in Congress. The Board of Commerce took similar action Monday evening.

FIRST camp at Camp Ripley is scheduled for the period June 14 to 28, when the 59th Field Artillery Brigade, 34th Division Aviation and 118th Motor Repair Section will go in training. Thereafter the schedule is full until the end of August.

LITTLE FALLS has repealed 242 old ordinances, doing away with laws governing hitching posts on Main street, bicycle speed regulations, etc. Many a town can profit by having its ordinances recodified and following the example of Little Falls.

CHORE men who will swap their services in exchange for board and room will be available to local farmers through a service being worked out by the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation.

CHICAGO gunmen have shown their rapacity by raiding church gatherings.

BERG MEETS PERLICK AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN TONIGHT

BOYS HAVE MET TWICE BEFORE IN SQUARED CIRCLE

ENGLISHMAN FIRST WHIPPED KALAMAZOO BOY IN WEST SEVERAL YEARS AGO

THE SECOND ENGAGEMENT WAS A BLISTERING AFFAIR, LEADING UP TO PRESENT

By HENRY McLEMORE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Jack Kid Berg of Eogland, junior welterweight champion of the world, meets Herman Perlick, fighting twin of Kalamazoo, in the feature ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

No one knows just why the two boys are fighting unless it be for the championship of the Berg-Perlick league. They have met twice before with Berg coming home in front on both occasions. The Englishman first whipped the Kalamazoo boy in the west several years ago and made it two out of two in Queensboro Stadium here last June.

The second engagement was a blistering affair and may explain tonight's bout. Perlick all but knocked Berg out in the early rounds and would have taken the decision had he not tired badly near the close. Ever since that night Perlick has insisted that he be given another shot at the champion and a chance to prove that his tiring was just one of those things.

Berg, fresh from a victory over Goldie Hess in Chicago, predicts a knockout victory. He says he is bigger and stronger than ever and will have little trouble making it three out of three over Perlick. The gambling fraternity has taken him at his word and made him an 8 to 5 favorite.

Although the New York Athletic commission does not recognize his title, Berg insists that it is at stake tonight and the bauble is Perlick's if he should win. Berg, by the way, has violated all the rules and traditions of the champion's guild since winning his title, by risking it every week or so. Tonight marks the 16th time he has placed it on the block.

The preliminary cards promise much action, especially the semi-final which brings together Tony Herrera, hard-hitting Mexican, and Sammy Dorgman, of New York.

Kid Francis, Italian veteran, and Pete De Grasse meet in the second ten-rounder. Lew Felder and Sammy Mingle in the opening ten.

TONY CANZONERI NOW AT CHICAGO

STARTS TRAINING FOR 10 ROUND NON-TITLE BOUT WITH GOLDIE HESS

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Tony Canzoneri, Brooklyn lightweight, returned to Chicago today for the first time since he won the world's championship from Al Singer last fall.

The champion came from New Orleans, where he successfully defended his title against Johnny Farr of Cleveland, and plans to start training immediately for a 10-round non-title bout with Goldie Hess of California, at Chicago Stadium, Feb. 4.

Hess has been training in Chicago since his unsuccessful try at Jack Berg's junior-welterweight champion last week. He has met Canzoneri before, accepting the bout on four-days notice and flying to New York from California. Although he lost a close decision he was credited with "softening up" Tony to such an extent that Canzoneri dropped a decision to Billy Petrolle. The Petrolle bout, previous to Canzoneri's winning of the title, was the champion's last appearance at Chicago.

STAR GUARD MAY CAUSE DISTINCT LOSS TO B. H. S.

DAMMANN PREPARES A NEW SCORING ATTACK TO FIGHT AITKIN DEFENSE

VISITORS, TRUE TO FORM, EXPECTED TO START GAME WITH RUSH

Brainerd high school may be minus one of its star cagers in the game with Aitkin tonight.

Marshall, guard, and the starting man in rushes of the Warriors and a power on the defense, has been on the sick list for the past three days with a cold.

Marshall's absence will prove a distinct loss to the B. H. S. tonight, for the home team will need its entire strength to defeat Aitkin.

Aitkin will invade Brainerd at the height of its strength and will immediately start a strong offensive to establish a lead.

Coach Dammann will substitute either White or McPherson on the guard position which Marshall may be forced to vacate this evening, if he can possibly enter the game.

A change in the starting line-up to gain a strong scoring combination is to be made tonight, Coach Dammann predicted today.

The main event will get underway at 8 P. M. with the preliminary between the Aitkin Hi-Y and the Brainerd Hi-Y to start at 7 P. M.

A tumbling exhibition and selections by the high school pep band is billed for the half.

SPORTS KAYOES

By "HAPPY"

Well, this is the night that Bill Dammann's boys will try to put the "ache" in Aitkin.

From the tough time that Crosby-Ironton had in downing Aitkin not so long ago on the Aitkin floor it may be that the result will sound more like the "braining of Brainerd" than that of giving a dull pain to the boys from the neighboring county seat.

Speaking of dull pains—that is just exactly what the "Rotes" are giving us nowadays by temporarily disregarding the challenge of the Lions for a friendly little game of basketball. The Rotarians went through their program of dinner and song again on Tuesday, but as far as we are able to learn, they said nothing in regard to that little massive sent them by the Wednesday night dinner men.

Certainly the "Rotes" can't use the old excuse that they have no way in which to practice. Thursday night is Business Men's night at the high school gym. Come on, you "Rotes," let's see some action!

A game between the two Servus clubs of the city takes on all the proportions of a "natural." Speaking of "naturals" the King Tut-Billy Petrolle scrap down at the cities Monday night should be another.

The sports editor of the St. Cloud Times doesn't seem quite so cocky lately after the fall that Little Falls took out of Tech a week or so ago. Oh well, Tech can't get a full schedule of set-ups.

There is no Brainerd-St. Cloud Tech game this year. It is no fault of Coach Bill Dammann's either. He wrote them, several letters but they failed to give any heed to Brainerd—maybe Coaches Crose and Kasch just figured that Brainerd would be a little too tough.

A number of Brainerd hardwood fans will probably journey over to Crosby tomorrow night to see the Robins of the Range meet the Bemidji Wolves. So far the early season set-back at the hands of Bill Dammann's boys is the only reversal that the Wolves have met. Everything points to one of the best games of the season at Crosby tomorrow night.

Just because Governor Olson is in Little Falls today doesn't mean that the minds of the Little Falls fans will turn away from basketball. Coach Burnett's cagers meet Staples at the Falls tonight. It should be a pretty good game, and it sets us to wondering whether Mr. Wood, the big I AM from C-I-L, will prefer to scout the Falls-Staples game or the little argument between Aitkin and Brainerd here this evening.

Now here is what the Wadena sheet has to say about their game here last week-end: "After winning nine games in a row, the locals traveled over to Brainerd Friday night and took the short end of an 18-14 score against the high school team of that place. Wadena deserved to win but erratic basket shooting and deplorable officiating proved their undoing." OH WELL!

Leafs, Canadiens Win (By United Press)

The Toronto Maple Leafs gained a clear title on second place in the international group of the National Hockey League last night by defeating the Ottawa Senators 3 to 2 while the Montreal Maroons were idle.

Toronto scored all its goals in the third period. Philadelphia's Quakers, who have won but two games all season, were overwhelmed by the World Champion Canadiens of Montreal, losing 7 to 1. The Canadiens scored twice in each of the first two periods, and added three goals in the final frame.

The Boston Bruins maintained their jinx over the New York Rangers, winning 4 to 3. The game was the 17th meeting of the two clubs since the Rangers last won a game. The Bruins three times came from behind to tie the score.

JACK SHARKEY CASTS LOT WITH CHICAGO STADIUM

WAS SHUNTED OUT OF RETURN MATCH WITH MAX SCHMELING

WILL FIGHT BEST AVAILABLE OPPONENT AT SOLDIER FIELD JUNE 18

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Jack Sharkey, who was shunted out of a return match with Max Schmeling for the world heavyweight championship, has cast his lot with Chicago stadium and will fight the best available opponent at Soldier field, June 18, it was announced today by Matchmaker Nate Lewis.

No opponent has been selected for the Boston sailor, but Lewis said it was probable that Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, would be the man.

"If Walker should win decisively from Risko in their bout at Miami next month he would be the logical opponent," said Lewis. "If Risko whips Walker the Cleveland boy might be our choice for a fight here with Sharkey."

Lewis said that Johnny Buckley, Sharkey's manager, had agreed to terms for the outdoor bout and had expressed a willingness to appear once during the indoor season at the stadium.

The signing of Sharkey for a feature bout was regarded generally as an attempt by Chicago stadium to "get even" with the interests that took the Schmeling-Stribling championship bout away from the stadium after the Chicago corporation had offered Schmeling $500,000 to defend his title here.

KNUTE K. ROCKNE TO ACCEPT TROPHY FOR 'FIGHTING IRISH'

Philadelphia, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Knute K. Rockne, head football coach at Notre Dame university, will accept the trophy emblematic of the national football championship which will be presented to the "Fighting Irish" by the Philadelphia Veterans Athletes association at its annual banquet at the Penn. A. C. tomorrow night. Rockne will arrive here tomorrow afternoon.

VAN'S MEN ENTER FARGO TOURNEY

BRAINERD TEAM TO COMPETE SATURDAY IN ANNUAL PIN CLASSIC

Six bowlers representing Van's Cafe left Brainerd this afternoon to compete in the Fargo Bowling Tournament at Fargo, N. D.

The men will not enter play until tomorrow afternoon when they roll in the singles and doubles together with the Raymond Bros. team of St. Cloud. The five man team will roll tomorrow evening.

The Brainerd bowlers making the trip are Russell Hagberg, C. C. Van Essen, Chester Cameron, Lester Boyd, Wm. Demmers and Earl DeRoche.

That "Heavy" Run-Round

By HARDIN BURNLEY

JACK SHARKEY.. BEST OF THE HEAVYWEIGHT CROP WHO APPEARS TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD..AS USUAL.

MAX SCHMELING REFUSES TO PLAY WITH MR. SHARKEY.

"STRIB" IS STRINGING WITH MAX!

BAH

SPORT BUG.

WHAT looked like the formation of an "eternal triangle" among the world's leading heavyweight boxers—Schmeling, Sharkey and Stribling—recently lost its Sharkey side, that mysterious "fourth dimension" of the fight racket—the colorful Primo Carnera—being given Jack's place for the 1931 title eliminations. This was the immediate result of the New York boxing commission voiding Schmeling's title because he refused to sign with Sharkey for a return match, the German's manager declaring that he would not do so until Jack and Stribling fought an elimination contest.

When that firmest firm of Farley, Muldoon & Phelan ousted Schmeling that put the German in the same class with Primo Carnera who was barred way back last Spring because of some managerial hocus-pocus. Certain powers even tried to deport Primo. Everything possible was done to belittle the Italian giant, but he continued to be a remarkable gate attraction and, with set-ups or otherwise, to improve as a boxer. So when Schmeling was shorn of that New York title he was not in any orphan's lonely plight, what with Carnera, biggest coin collector of 'em all, also an outlaw. And then Stribling was in the offing. Bill and his "Pa" long had resented the "Tammany" attitude of Gotham's boxing bosses. So he was willing to sign with Schmeling for a title bout outside New York and, to keep Carnera out of competing with that match, both Bill and Max agreed to have Primo fight the winner next September.

That would seem to leave Sharkey out in the cold so far as the big money is concerned this year, though he may be matched with Mickey Walker, who, of course, is also under suspension in New York.

Farley, Muldoon & Co. are sore put to have their authority flouted and heavy reprisals are feared, particularly against Madison Square Garden. Perhaps efforts may be made to abolish boxing in New York. Now you can't give those Tammany boys the run-around. They can "make you" or "break you" if you're a champ—and they can do the same thing to the whole game in the Empire State if their authority is slighted. ## "Can Take It Plenty"

By HARDIN BURNLEY

LOU GEHRIG BASEBALL'S IRON MAN-- HE HAS PLAYED IN OVER 1000 CONSECUTIVE GAMES!

GAME, DURABLE AND STRONG!

SPORT BUG.

THE ring has produced many specimens of extraordinary durability—boxers with ability to assimilate extreme punishment and to carry on with flying fists for amazing lengths of time. Of all these gaff marvels, Battling Nelson perhaps is the best known. The "Durable Dan" is fistiana's favorite yardstick for all who "can take it 'til the cows come." The old Bat was a human-bulldog chock full of stamina and red, raw courage.

So it is high praise, indeed, when Tom McArde, Madison Square Garden matchmaker, tabs Lou Gehrig, New York Yankee first baseman, exemplifies that quality admirably. He has played as "a cheese champ" in spite of his victory over Kid Chocolate, but when such a wise judge of ringmen as McArde accords Battalino that Nelson accolade, it takes most of the unpleasantness from those cameraman's quips. Tom based his opinion largely on Battalino's great display of churning courage and astounding durability in pressing Chocolate throughout their duel in which the Cuban flash was a lopsided favorite, but lost after twelve torrid rounds.

Durability is also a most valuable asset in almost every form of sport from football and hockey to chess and checkers. In baseball, Lou Gehrig, New York Yankee first baseman, exemplifies that quality admirably. He has played in about a thousand consecutive games, missing only about twenty innings in all. He has endured the pain and strain of broken bones, muscle wrenches, etc., in the stalwart style of the Columbia football star he used to be. Recently, Gehrig signed a Yank contract that will net him $75,000 for the next two seasons. He deserves that fortune. As his team's home run pacesetter for Babe Ruth, a heavy hitter otherwise, and as a first class infielder, Gehrig has been a genuine big star from the start, and is still that. Always in condition and anxious to do his best, Big Lou is likely to become the most durable of all big leaguers before he retires in the dim future. Copyright, 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

BERG MEETS PERLICK AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN TONIGHT

BOYS HAVE MET TWICE BEFORE IN SQUARED CIRCLE

ENGLISHMAN FIRST WHIPPED KALAMAZOO BOY IN WEST SEVERAL YEARS AGO

THE SECOND ENGAGEMENT WAS A BLISTERING AFFAIR, LEADING UP TO PRESENT

By HENRY McLEMORE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Jack Kid Berg of England, junior welterweight champion of the world, meets Herman Perllick, fighting twin of Kalamazoo, in the feature (ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

No one knows just why the two boys are fighting unless it be for the championship of the Berg-Perllick league. They have met twice before with Berg coming home in front on both occasions. The Englishman first whipped the Kalamazoo boy in the west several years ago and made it two out of two in Queensboro Stadium here last June.

The second engagement was a blistering affair and may explain tonight's bout. Perllick all but knocked Berg out in the early rounds and would have taken the decision had he not tired badly near the close. Ever since that night Perllick has insisted that he be given another shot at the champion and a chance to prove that his tiring was just one of those things.

Berg, fresh from a victory over Goldie Hess in Chicago, predicts a knockout victory. He says he is bigger and stronger than ever and will have little trouble making it three out of three over Perllick. The gambling fraternity has taken him at his word and made him an 8 to 5 favorite.

Although the New York Athletic commission does not recognize his title, Berg insists that it is at stake tonight and the battle is Perllick's if he should win. Berg, by the way, has violated all the rules and traditions of the champion's guild since winning his title, by risking it every week or so. Tonight marks the 16th time he has placed it on the block.

The preliminary cards promise much action, especially the semi-final which brings together Tony Herera, hard-hitting Mexican, and Sammy Dergman, of New York.

Kid Francis, Italian veteran, and Pete De Grasse meet in the second (ten-round). Lew Felder and Sammy Mingle in the opening ten.

TONY CANZONERI NOW AT CHICAGO

STARTS TRAINING FOR 10 ROUND NON-TITLE BOUT WITH GOLDIE HESS

Chicago, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—Tony Canzoneri, Brooklyn lightweight, returned to Chicago today for the first time since he won the world's championship from Al Singer last fall.

The champion came from New Orleans, where he successfully defended his title against Johnny Farr of Cleveland, and plans to start training immediately for a 10-round non-title bout with Goldie Hess of California, at Chicago Stadium, Feb. 4.

Hess has been training in Chicago since his unsuccessful try at Jack Berg's junior-welterweight championship last week. He has met Canzoneri before, accepting the bout on four-days notice and flying to New York from California. Although he lost a close decision he was credited with "softening up" Tony to such an extent that Canzoneri dropped a decision to Billy Petrolle. The Petrolle bout, previous to Canzoneri's winning of the title, was the champion's last appearance at Chicago.

STAR GUARD MAY CAUSE DISTINCT LOSS TO B. H. S.

DAMMANN PREPARES A NEW SCORING ATTACK TO FIGHT AITKIN DEFENSE

VISITORS, TRUE TO FORM, EXPECTED TO START GAME WITH RUSH

Braierd high school may be minus one of its star cagers in the game with Aitkin tonight.

Marshall, guard, and the starting man in rushes of the Warriors and a power on the defense, has been on the sick list for the past three days with a cold.

Marshall's absence will prove a distinct loss to the B. H. S. tonight, for the home team will need its entire strength to defeat Aitkin.

Aitkin will invade Braierd at the height of its strength and will immediately start a strong offensive to establish a lead.

Coach Dammann will substitute either White or McPherson on the guard position which Marshall may be forced to vacate this evening, if he can possibly enter the game.

A change in the starting line-up to gain a strong scoring combination is to be made tonight, Coach Dammann predicted today.

The main event will get underway at 8 P. M. with the preliminary between the Aitkin Hi-Y and the Braierd Hi-Y to start at 7 P. M.

A tumbling exhibition and selections by the high school pep band is billed for the half.

WHAT looked like the formation of an "eternal triangle" among the world's leading heavyweight boxers—Schmeling, Sharkey and Stribling—recently lost its Sharkey side, that mysterious "fourth dimension" of the fight racket—the colorful Primo Carnera—being given Jack's place for the 1931 title eliminations. This was the immediate result of the New York boxing commission voiding Schmeling's title because he refused to sign with Sharkey for a return match, the German's manager declaring that he would not do so until Jack and Stribling fought an elimination contest.

When that firmest firm of Farley, Muldoon & Phelan ousted Schmeling that put the German in the same class with Primo Carnera who was barred way back last Spring because of some managerial hocus-pocus. Certain powers even tried to deport Primo. Everything possible was done to belittle the Italian giant, but he continued to be a remarkable gate attraction and, with set-ups or otherwise, to improve as a boxer.

So when Schmeling was shorn of that New York title he was not in any orphan's lonely plight, what with Carnera, biggest coin collector of 'em all, also an outlaw. And then Stribling was in the offing. Bill and his "Pa" long had resented the "Tammany" attitude of Gotham's boxing bosses. So he was willing to sign with Schmeling for a title bout outside New York and to keep Carnera out of competing with that match, both Bill and Max agreed to have

INDIAN ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE DECLARED A "SUCCESSFUL FAILURE"

By HARRY L. PERCY,

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

London, Jan. 30.—(U.P.)—One definite result of the Indian Round Table Conference was a split between Stanley Baldwin and Winston Churchill, the two most powerful men in the conservative party, political circles agreed today. Churchill withdrew from the conservative business committee due to disagreement on the Indian question.

The conference was described as "a successful failure" in its efforts to solve Anglo-Indian problems, but it accomplished the unexpected when Baldwin and Churchill disagreed regarding its findings. The trouble started last Monday when Churchill, in the house of commons, made a characteristically bitter attack on the labor administration and condemned the Indian negotiations as a failure.

Baldwin, leader of the conservatives, repudiated his colleague. He said that if Churchill had observed a "day of silence," such as Indian leaders impose upon themselves, he would have had no occasion to speak. Churchill's remarks were entirely personal, for previously Sir Samuel Hoare had given the conservatives' guarded approval of the government's plans for India, and Baldwin said that if he assumed power tomorrow, he would implement them.

Churchill announced his resignation from the conservative business committee, or "shadow cabinet," in a letter to Baldwin. He said that he had resigned "because our divergent view on the Indian policy has now become public."

Churchill assured Baldwin of his warmest personal regards and his continued support in the house of commons. Baldwin replied agreeing to Churchill's resignation and assuring him of hearty cooperation in other affairs.

Politicians were uncertain just how great an effect Churchill's move on the internal organization of the conservative party. "Winnie" Churchill, one of the most colorful and popular political figures of his generation, has changed his political affiliations before. He deserted the conservatives for the liberals early in his career, but came back to the conservative ranks after David Lloyd George refused to name him chancellor of the exchequer.

Churchill has held more important posts than any other living British statesman. The position of prime minister to elude him. He has been described as "a genius without judgement" and has a brilliant record as a soldier and journalist—and more recently as a member of the Brick Layers Union—in addition to his achievements as a statesman.

If Churchill decides to widen the break between Baldwin and himself he can cause the conservative chief-tan more trouble than any other individual. Churchill is immensely popular with the masses and holds great power within the conservative party. His alliance with any other faction would create one of England's greatest political sensations.

Conservatives' quarters, however, did not foresee trouble for Baldwin on the Indian question, for Churchill appeared to be alone in his criticism of the recent conference. Baldwin has the united support of the conservatives, as witnessed by his "ultimatum to the barons of Fleet street," when he advised Lord Beaverbrook and Lord Rothermere, titled publishers, to pay more attention to their publishing and less attention to their empire free trade campaign.

Finance—R. R. Gould, R. J. Tinkelpaugh, S. R. Adair.

Publicity—John A. Hoffbauer, Geo. Ericson, Ralph Sheets.

Traffic—Carl Zapffe, Con O'Brien, A. C. Ebert.

Meeting and Entertainment—Frank G. Hall, F. E. Stout, W. A. Spencer.

Membership—Archie Falconer, D. C. Gray, C. N. Erickson, Dr. W. A. Erickson.

Special Committees—Tourist trade, F. N. Russell, R. R. Gould, R. E. Weyt; Legislative, Frank J. Lowry, A. M. Opsahl, B. L. Lagerquist, R. L. Geist.

A further special committee will be named by the president to work in connection with attractions offered visitors to Camp Ripley to come to the Brainerd lake region.

A sub committee will also be named to the tourist trade committee to assist in advertising the lake region this summer.

Mr. Tyrholm will announce at the next meeting a committee urged by County Agent E. G. Roth to work for the establishment of a marketing agency for poultry, eggs, etc., in connection with Brainerd creameries.

W. D. McKay, Con O'Brien and Geo. Ericson have been named a committee to solicit the proposed federal prison farm for Brainerd territory.

Mr. Erickson has also been instructed to take up with Governor Olson the matter of securing a museum preserving the memory of the early woodsmen for one of Brainerd's parks.

Marcus Nelson, a resort owner, has suggested to the Chamber the establishment of a radio broadcasting station for Brainerd and vicinity.

He further asks a mail service for all resorts on Gull Lake, C. A. Ryan was named chairman of a committee on the latter.

The request for federal markers on highways entering Brainerd will also be taken up by the Chamber.

Northwest Auto Show

Held Jan. 31 to Feb. 7

Hamline, Minn., Jan. 30.—Newspapers, radio and billboards are being utilized widely throughout this section of the country to apprise the public that the great Northwest Auto Show will play its annual engagement at the Minnesota State Fair Grounds the week of Jan. 31-Feb. 7.

Directors of the enterprise this year voted nearly $20,000 for advertising, with the bulk of this amount going to papers throughout Minnesota, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota and Iowa.

"While folks are retrenching in practically every line of business the automotive people are going right along on the theory that there is nothing on the matter with the Northwest," President D. A. Odell of the show association said today. "We have perfect faith in business prospects for 1931 and we are going to show that faith by staging the most beautiful and interesting show this year that the Northwest has ever seen."

With the show opening about a week in the future, interest around the Twin Cities appears to be running higher than a year ago. Local jobbers report that more of their country dealers will be in than ordinarily. Hotels report heavy reservations and retail stores are arranging special sales for the week.

The giving away of seven new 1931 model, four-door sedans—one each night—is helping to popularize this year's exhibition. And the appearance of Ace Brigode and his 14 Virginians to furnish the dance music seems to meet with popular approval. This organization is well known to radio audiences from its programs over station WTAM at Cleveland.

Miscellaneous Shower

Held for Recent Bride

Mrs. Clayton Rardin, 211½ Main street, entertained at a miscellaneous bridal shower last evening for Mrs. John D. Derksen, formerly Miss Doris Anderson, recent bride.

Three tables of bunco were played, Miss Dorothy Betts receiving head prize and Mrs. G. E. Hedstrom consolation. The honor guest received many lovely gifts, after which a luncheon was served by the hostess.

FAILS TO POST LAND, FINED $25

Joe Miller Pleads Guilty to Timber Charge in Campaign by Forestry Department

Joe Miller of Roosevelt township was brought before Judge J. H. Warner this morning on complaint of Ranger E. H. Rhodes for failure to post the northwest corner of forty on which he was found cutting timber. Mr. Miller entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25.00 and $10.00 costs or 25 days in county jail and on failure to pay fine was committed to jail.

Ranger Rhodes stated in court that the defendant had not only failed to post the land as required by state law but that he had also failed to make a written report to the State Forester, Old Capitol Bldg., St. Paul, and further that the cutting was trespass cutting.

This is only one of numerous prosecutions that have been made in the district recently by the Forestry Department, in an effort to not only get the slash fire hazard reduced but to discourage trespass and cutting timber on tax delinquent land. Mr. Rhodes said.

MILLS MOTOR CO. REMODEL GARAGE

Install New Equipment; Shop, Battery and Lubricating Rooms Finished in Red and Gray

The nine shop employees of the Mills Motor Co., successors to the Walter P. Tyrholm Co. have been working night and day for the past two weeks under the supervision of a representative from the Ford Motor Co. installing new equipment and redecorating the model shop, battery room, paint shop, battery room, lubricating room and the storage department.

The floors and walls in these departments and much of the equipment have been painted a tractor gray and trimmed in red. Cleanliness has been a paramount issue and now the rooms present a spotless appearance that, to say the least, is very attractive.

The shop has been remodeled and at the present time the employees are working hard and are fast whipping the battery room into shape.

New equipment is being installed as quickly as possible and more new equipment is at the depot awaiting installation.

A great deal of labor has been spent on a number of tool boards that are replacing the old cabinets in the model shop. A glance at the tool boards makes it possible for the mechanics to check all tools and is seen as a great advantage over the old method of rummaging through cabinets to locate missing tools.

The work, in its entirety, should be completed within the next few weeks.

"Married Life" Not Worth While

Blames Wives' "Nerves"

"Weak nerves," said a New York doctor recently, "in my estimation wreck more happily married lives than any other cause."

Besides making the sweetest disposition sour and irritable, nervousness is a terrible drain on your vital forces—it saps your youth and your strength and dulls your beauty. What a difference from the bright-eyed, vibrant girl he married. No wonder married life seems unbearable!

But you can get rid of your nervousness—speedily too—and become the steady-nerved, radiant woman you once were. Try the effect of Tanlac after meals and before going to bed, and if it doesn't soon make a new woman of you—doesn't rid you of that tired, strained feeling—go back and get your money.

Go to your druggist now and get a bottle of Tanlac. Millions of folks have started back on the road to youth, health and happiness with this world famous tonic and there is no reason why you, too, can't begin today to rebuild your worn-out tissues and revitalize your entire system.

BEAUTY SURROUNDS CHURCH DEDICATION

St. Paul's Episcopal Church Ritual Held in Presence of Capacity House

Closer Communion With God in God's House, Keynote of Bishop's Sermon

Amid the enriching music of the new pipe organ, the beauty of carnations, roses and snapdragons, the striking loveliness of the main assembly, the chancel, the exquisiteness of it all, the new St. Paul's Episcopal church was solemnly pledged to the support of God's work as final dedication services last evening of a day long to be remembered by St. Paul's, visiting clergymen and friends.

A soul reaching beauty and reverence came to everyone who entered the oaken doors and marble vestibule of St. Paul's to worship and give thanks and praise for work completed.

The church was filled to capacity but ushers and worshippers alike made it possible for all who came to witness and hear the impressive 17:30 of the Episcopal church in its dedication ritual.

For the benefit of non-member clergymen participating explained various orders of the service.

The service opened with the chancel boys, choir and clergymen, robed as to their offices, walking and singing a hymn of praise down the aisle to the chancel. It was a reverential tribute to the holiness of Deity.

Rev. Julius H. Brown, rector of the Indian Parish, St. Ansgarius church, Redby, read the psalms and lessons.

Rev. E. C. Kall-O-Sed, of the Indian Clergy, White Earth, said prayers.

Rev. C. M. Brandon, rector of St. Paul's officially, presented thanks and appreciation to all who in any way assisted in making the church building possible.

Finding closer communion with God in God's house, the worship of God to meet problems of life and a Christian service of great aspiration and inspiration to mankind, was the keynote of the sermon by Rt. Rev. F. A. McEwain, Bishop of the Diocese of Minnesota.

Rt. Rev. B. T. Kemerer, Bishop Co-Adjutor of the Diocese of Duluth pronounced the benediction and consecrated the organ and pews.

Bishop G. G. Bennett was unable to be present because of illness.

CARD OF THANKS

DOWN STATE JURIST GETS OLSON CALL

Judge Alfred Stolberg, Centre City, Accepts Duty in Sullivan Hearing

Called by Governor Floyd B. Olson to preside at the hearing on the petition brought to remove County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan from office on complaint of alleged infractions of the Corrupt Practices Act at the November election, Judge Alfred Stolberg of Centre City, Minn., has accepted.

The downstate jurist will arrive in Brainerd to hear the case starting Tuesday, February 10.

38 GRADE CROSSINGS ELIMINATED IN 1930; 441 IN LAST DECADE

Thirty-eight railroad grade crossings on the trunk highway system were eliminated in 1930, according to the biennial report of the Minnesota Highway department. Of these twenty-nine were eliminated by relocation of the road and nine by grade separations.

A total of 441 grade crossings have been eliminated on the trunk routes since the state took over the system in 1921. There were 972 grade crossings on the 7,000 miles of highway taken into the system in the spring of 1921 and 531 still remain. In the same period the number of railroad overhead bridges has been increased from 24 to 64 and the number of underpasses from 54 to 93.

Five center piers were removed from underpass structures in 1930. Elimination of grade crossings and the remaining center piers will be continued in the future as rapidly as feasible, according to Commissioner C. M. Babcock.

OVERHEATED STOVE CAUSES $300 FIRE

Chief Leads Search for Children at First Believed Sleeping in Rooms

An overheated stove caused a fire doing $300 damage to the home of Wm. Ledoux, 311 North 11th street at 11:05 p. m. Thursday.

Anxious regarding the safety of any of the members of the family who may have been sleeping in the smoke filled home, Fire Chief Frank Fuller led a search of all rooms of the building immediately upon arrival.

Mrs. Ledoux and her seven children were away from the home at the time of the fire. The husband and father is employed on a bridge gang for the Northern Pacific railway at Carleton.

The fire swept through the floor to the second story and spread through the south wall of the building. Twenty seven firemen answered the call. The fire was extinguished with little water damage.

N. P. STANDING IS STRONG ONE

Earnings to be Slightly Under $7 a Share on Common Stock

Charles Donnelly, president of the Northern Pacific railway company, according to an Associated Press report from New York City, said the road will report for last year, after payment of common dividends, allowance of approximately $4,800,000, which was carried to surplus, indicating earnings for the year equal to a few cents less than $7 a share on the common stock.

This balance would be about $4,600,000 less than was reported for 1929, when the road earned $88.20 a common share. He pointed out that during 1930 the road received approximately $2,800,000 from the Northern Express company, a wholly owned subsidiary; about $4,150,000 through an extra $5 a share dividend from the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad and its usual $992,000 annual dividend.

GIRL UNAFRAID

BY GLADYS JOHNSON

Spy's Insinuations Cause Separation Ken and Cecile

CHAPTER XL.

It was as though her thought summoned him . . . A rattle at the front door and there was a florist boy with a large square box. Even before she lifted the cover, Ardeth knew it came from Ken.

Large double white violets. A fragrant mass, crisp and sweet and somehow smelling of the brown wet earth.

No word with them. She needed no word.

When Tom came to drive her out to Mary's she was waiting for him with her wraps on, and there was a bunch of white violets pinned to her coat collar. Tom's watchful eyes saw that she had been crying. It was a quiet drive out to Mary's.

Impossible to be sad at Mary's house, a cheerful glow of candle-light and holly. With Fred, tall and grinning behind his new pipe. With the Chickadee ecstatically embracing everyone's knees and incoherent with delight.

"If the child hasn't become an idiot through sheer excitement I'll be thankful!" Mary explained as she carried Ardeth away to the bedroom to lay off her wraps. "She was too little to get the idea of Christmas last year, but I think it will take her until Easter to recover."

So Mary chattered and all the time her eyes were regarding Ardeth with a queer uncertain look as the girl stood before the mirror.

Ardeth was altogether lovely today in a maroon crepe, which flung her tender throat and face into warm relief and made a flame of her tawny hair. A long string of carved ivory beads and the white violets added the necessary contrast.

Gossip's Aftermath

Mary spoke the words having an odd reluctance, as though they were dragged from her against her will.

"Ardeth . . . did you know that Ken and Cecile have separated?" Eyes suddenly large and dark in a white face Ardeth turned to face her. "Why—why—no. Are you sure?"

"Cecile's mother told Mrs. Hawkins. They're thicker than thieves, you know. Ever since that Spy thing came out Cecile's been a demon."

Ardeth's hand had crept to her throat, frantically twisting ivory beads.

"It was just a couple of days ago," Mary went on. Then, bitterly, "Much good it will do! Not for Ken nor you—oh, my dear child, don't look so!"

With a soft rush she rose, took the girl in her arms. "I told you, Ardeth, so you wouldn't hear it from someone else and be startled. But it means nothing, darling. She won't give him up legally. She's too selfish, too spiteful. She has him in a cul-de-sac, Ardeth."

Mary felt the slender body trembling. Ardeth's voice came hoarsely. "Where—where is Ken now?"

"I don't know. At a hotel I suppose. From what Mrs. Parker told Phil's mother, the break is final." Mary lifted her head sharply as new voices filtered into the bedroom. "The Ames have come! I must go. Pull yourself together, Ardeth child and come out and join us."

When she was gone, Ardeth moved to the window.

Ken had left Cecile . . . What did that mean? Mary was right—Cecile would never give Ken his legal freedom. Things were unchanged for herself . . .

Rain driving into a gray world. Where was Ken on this rainy Christmas? He would not be with friends—she knew his sensitive nature too well for that. Alone and unhappy on Christmas . . . A hotel room . . . dinner alone . . . The girl had dropped and risen in her throat. Gray rain lashing outside, and in her heart a little hopeless prayer.

Carolyn Forsythe was giving a New Year's Eve party.

When Tom mentioned it—taking it for granted that she was going with him, Ardeth had hesitated. Unfair, to give Tom all her spare time . . . ran her thoughts. Unkind to lead him on in this manner . . .

No Proposal

Tom's lips had a wry little twist. "Don't be afraid, Ardeth, this isn't leading up to another proposal. I guess the silent partnership of the shop is the best I can hope for."

Ardeth tried to grin in reply, but it was not wholly a success. "Now, Tom . . . you would have to make me feel bad! Oh, my dear, I wish things were different. I'd like to make you happy—you know that don't you?"

He patted the kind little hand which had gone to his arm, a pat supposed to be reassuring and very brotherly. "You good little kid—then you're coming. I'll tell Carolyn."

The Forsythe home, standing in the midst of its dark gardens was in a festive glow that night. It had lost its usual air of bright primness for the time being under the red and green of holiday decorations, just as Carolyn had lost her bright primness and become a rosy and slightly anxious hostess.

Looking at her rosy face and plump body, Ardeth thought of Dickens' creation, pretty Dot Peerybingle.

The French doors were flung open between the large rooms. A five-piece dance orchestra played at one end of the long space. Serpentine and confetti made an unusual splash of color against the dignified background.

Ardeth was slender and lovely in cream lace and she spoke with a vivid gaiety which gave no hint of her own serious thoughts. New Year's Eve . . . the brink of another year . . . What could it hold for her? She wondered somberly. Was it empty and grudging like the one which was slipping away tonight? What did it hold for Ken?

The hours became milestones to laugh and dance away. Her face was a mask to hide her feelings. She slipped into the bedroom, ostensibly to powder her face—really to relax from her forced vivacity. A relief to be alone in the shaded light. She went to the open window and drew deep breaths of the fresh, sweet air blowing in from the garden.

The voices of two men started her as they paused in the hall for a smoke. They were discussing the stock market. At first she listened apathetically, barely noting the meaning of the words.

Caught Short

"A lot of fellows we know got caught in that jam when Consolidated Rubber dropped. Glad it caught me with only a few shares—and those I'd bought outright. I hear that Lane dropped quite a sum on that stock, and Glenison, too. Caught him bad. He lost all he put in—and a lot more."

"If the damn fools will buy on margin, what do they expect?" came the second impatient voice. "I won't touch a thing that isn't bought outright. But Glenison's been plunging for quite a while now."

"Yes, and between ourselves Ken can't afford to lose," went on the first voice. "I saw him late today. He looks like the devil. I think he's on the skids if you ask me. Darned nice fellow, too. . . ."

The two men moved on, the smoke of their cigars lingering in the hall after them.

Like a "couple of voices off stage," thought the girl who listened in the bedroom. A couple of voices which started the plot rolling.

Out of the mirror the consciousness of her own white face grew upon her. In the depths of the shadowy eyes a sudden resolve growing.

She was running through the dark garden, clutching her coat collar about her throat, high heels turning uncertainly under her. Late blooming roses and damp earth . . . black, star-enrusted sky. She was stealing down red brick stairs leading to a back street and there was an empty taxi cruising toward her. She hailed it, giving the number of the building where Ken had his office.

Dark blocks reeled off beneath the taxi wheels while the girl sat tense on the edge of the seat, her eyes staring with strange fixity.

The taxi slowed. Almost stopped. Crept through traffic. A city gone mad with merriment. A sea of faces flashing by the windows. Men's faces. Women's faces. Distorted with laughter. A steadily increasing roar surging like the wash of the sea. Confetti dashed at the window. Horns thrust against the glass. Screamed greetings.

Spy's Insinuations Cause Separation Ken and Cecile

CHAPTER XL.

It was as though her thought summoned him . . . A rattle at the front door and there was a florist boy with a large square box. Even before she lifted the cover, Ardeth knew it came from Ken.

Large double white violets. A fragrant mass, crisp and sweet and somehow smelling of the brown wet earth.

No word with them. She needed no word.

When Tom came to drive her out to Mary's she was waiting for him with her wraps on, and there was a bunch of white violets pinned to her coat collar. Tom's watchful eyes saw that she had been crying. It was a quiet drive out to Mary's.

Impossible to be sad at Mary's house, a cheerful glow of candlelight and holly. With Fred, tall and grinning behind his new pipe. With the Chickadee ecstatically embracing everyone's knees and inebriating with delight.

"If the child hasn't become an idiot through sheer excitement I'll be thankful!" Mary explained as she carried Ardeth away to the bedroom to lay off her wraps. "She was too little to get the idea of Christmas last year, but I think it will take her until Easter to recover."

So Mary chattered and all the time her eyes were regarding Ardeth with a queer uncertain look as the girl stood before the mirror.

Ardeth was altogether lovely today in a maroon crepe, which flung her tender throat and face into warm relief and made a flame of her tawny hair. A long string of carved ivory beads and the white violets added the necessary contrast.

Gossip's Aftermath

Mary spoke the words having an odd reluctance, as though they were dragged from her against her will.
